

The Underground Railroad Quilt Code

Fact or Fiction - Is there Proof?

Saturday, February 23, 2019, 10:00 AM

Sharon Tindall shares her passion for quilt codes and inspiring future generations to carry on the rich culture and legacy of African art and tradition. In this talk, she will lead participants through a journey of African ancestry and a narrative about the revelation of quilt codes, which are symbolic of hidden messages from which slaves could glean whether or not they were a taste away from freedom or danger was within the shadows.

Cost: FREE, no registration required

Location: the Cope House, 1 Awbury Rd, Phila, PA 19138

For more information and registration, visit www.awbury.org.